June 17th 2008.

We've had a wonderful week in Bathel.
A couple of highlights to mention are,
walking to Pentelley, the farmers market in Vellwon, a trip to Camy and the swimming pool in Vevian. (chilly!)

Thank you Pascal and Pippa for making us so welcome. You've thought of everything needed for a very enjoyable stay.

25th June 2008,

We've had a fabulous 12 days here in Sablet, and are sad to be leaving. We'd definitely recommend walks in les Dentelles or if the hot weather persists a cooling walk through the Gorges of Toulourenc - most of the walk is in the river itself!

The house itself is wonderful, - comfortable & with everything you could possibly need for a home away from home. Thanks Pippa & Pascal.

The four of us have had a tremendous time in this house. Good wine, good food and delightful summer days in the French countryside have combined for a memorable seven days. The house is the perfect base for exploring the region, and is a credit to the owners. I am sure that everyone who follows will be pleased with their choice to stay here.

Very sincerely

Seblet ... what a peacefull little village in the Vaucluse. We visited a couple more like it, i.e. Seguret, Crestet, Suzette, Vaison-la-Romaine.

Also, many good wines.

A tip to take away: MOURCION, in the hills above Seguret.

PiPe & Pascal's house was just perfect. Cool on sunny days and everything - really everything was so wellthought available.

BBQ set, picnic set, etc.

Our little baby son also adored all little places in the house and the fact that mum & dad were running after him all the time!

Thanks for this wonderfull week.

We have enjoyed ourselves very much in this lovely house and friendly village.

There are many wonderful places to visit nearby. Ones we have particularly enjoyed are:

Vaison la Romaine, the modern, medieval and Roman parts and particularly the huge market on Tuesdays.

La Grotte de Thougzon - an amazing cave near le Thor

Swimming in the river at Entrechaux (just beyond Vaison).

The time has gone all too quickly and we will hope to return here soon. Thank you for a perfect holiday base.

16th August 2008

We've had a wonderful holiday here, having felt very much at home both in the house and the village. We've particularly appreciated having all the equipment we needed to make picnics and cook in the evenings - White Sampling some of the excellent local vines (we would recommend a trip to Gigandas for wine-lovers). There are lots of places to visit nearby but our trip up Mount Ventoux is the most memorable - nobody warned us how scary it is getting to the top!

Thanks for a great holiday, wish we were staying longer.

Sadie and Tony.

29th August 2008

We have had a lovely holiday here in Sablet and have visited Vaison la Romaine, Seguret Orange, Avignon, Carpentras, L'isle-sur-la-Sorgue and a trip to Gignac to see the Village Provençal miniature which is a nice afternoon trip out

The house is extremely well equipped however we found that all the stairs inside the house (and outside) were difficult for us and would suggest that it is not really suitable for older people

We found a very good restaurant in St. Cécile les Vignes called "la Tarigonde". We went in the week and got there about 7.30 and it soon filled up so we suggest you book a table on (33) 04 90 30 89 89

Although we will not come back ourselves we would not hesitate to recommend it to our younger family & friends

Sandra - Bernard

Beautiful house, Sablet was excellent base.
Thanks to Pippa + Pascal for the wine + local information.

Travelled far (Millau Bridge) + near - Avignon, walking in Dentelles, Vaison and the many Templar villages.

Seven nights just wasn't enough. Hope to return soon to continue our education on wine & the other wonders of Provence.

The house provided a real home from home (with better weather of course!)

Thank you for sharing this little sanctuary with us. The house was as comfortable and charming as Sablet itself. On our first visit to Provence me, (from the other side of the world quite literally) could not have chosen a better place to stay. Day trips to so many beautiful villages and sights were easy journeys.

A week was hardly long enough
but nonetheless provided enjoyment and memories we will long cherish.
Should you return to our homeland
you would both be welcome guests
in our home.

Best wishes for the future and our thanks once again.

We have had a really enjoyable holiday in this lovely house - the stairs were a challenge but not insurmountable! Basking in the autumn sunshine, reading and talking on the balcony have been really restorative. Together with watching the vendage in Provence - a truly new experience for us - and visiting and photo-graphing ^{the locality} we will take back excellent memories of one of our favourite parts of France. Thank you for sharing your house with us.

What a lovely 4 days here in Salettes. Staying right in the heart of the village is an experience we will never forget. The bell tower chiming, the fresh croissants from the bakery + the peacefulness! All wonderful memories.

Day trips worth doing included a morning in Vaison la Romaine, Avignon, Port du Gard + Nimes - lovely to be just a short drive away!

Hope as the months get cooler, the people keep coming to Le' Fer a Cheval, as it is ^{sydney} just perfect! Katie + Ali - Australia'

A wonderful week - freezing temperatures & icy winds but clear blue skies - enjoyed lots of stunning walks in 'les dentelles' and around Morzine.

The house felt like a home with all the special touches & thoughtfulness to make our stay comfortable.

Great to experience the Vaucluse & Provence out of season.

Sat. 4th April 2009.

Thank you for a wonderful week. Lots of wine + great food - we recommend La Tounie Au Verre in Cairanne - fabulous!

Chez Sogé also in Carpentras was good.

The new village bakery has the best bread & the butcher is very helpful.

18th April Dear Pepi & Pascal.

Fancy following fellow Sydneyites to Sablet - how dare they! The highlight of the holiday here for me was reading 4 Alexander McCall Smith books A. A. Melne again! & watching a few DVDs. For Tim the computer of course!!

We went out "bravely" every day w/ maps & Mr Tom Tom - got lost, nearly died, cause many people to foot in order to get past - had dreadful arguments - nearly divorced after 55 years together.

However we are mad about the place! Love Sablet & the local providers. Ate "in" every night - delicious food. Had lots of yummy lunches & the odd baguettes - met some v. interesting people - namely - Gene from the US who runs a B&B in Seguret. The French people have been really sweet to us speaking our pidgin French/Spanish/English.

Crazy about all the Roman towns - what a race! What style! Built to last. Fabulous churches as well!

We drew everything that moved & more. Just loved the neighbours - especially the couple who sit in the churchyard w/ the cocker spaniel.

The house is a credit to you - very attractive & comfy. Having a house in Spain gives us an appreciation of what is involved

All the very best wishes to you both

9th May 2009 Dear Pipa & Pascal

Ooh-la-la; we loved the house and want to immediately rush home to New Zealand and build one in the bottom of our garden. Peter is quite serious and I love to watch him work!

On our last day we visited the village of Seguret and quite by chance met an American who had divested himself of consumerism and moved to Provence - can you blame him. He introduced us to his neighbour - a very fine wine maker. We now have the burden of transporting a box of wine back to Marborough; oh, the shame of it.

Thank you Pipa for the bottle of wine and allowing us to stay in your wonderful hideaway - we all have to do our bit for the French economy!

Dear Pippa,

Thank you for your clear directions from the airport, we didn't get lost once! Also the bottle of wine on our arrival. We have so enjoyed staying in Le-fer a cheval and the friendliness of Sablat. we have driven over 400 miles around Providence in one week in perfect weather.

Best wishes

It's the last night of our 3 week honeymoon here in Sablet. We couldn't have asked for a more amazing trip, house, town... We're sad to go - many tears have been shed.

We can't list all that we did, but some of our favorite adventures included — hiking in the Dentelles w/ lunch at l'Oust. ; driving (my husband actually also rode his bike) up Mt. Ventoux via Bedou, back through Sault and then up to Montbrun for a hike ; Sunday night pizza in Villedieu (all Saturday afternoon - Pizza Mumu 06 86 54 96 09, order for Sunday 1:30p, arrive 1p and have a drink or two at the cafe before picking up your pizza); Saturday market in Uses ; wine tour and cooking class w/ Olivier and Barbara Fantastic time from start to finish - we'll definitely be back!!

HOT here.

DEAR PIPPA AND PASCAL

THIS TOWN AND THIS HOUSE ARE JUST FANTASTIC. WE HAVE HAD A TRULY NICE VACATION - AND EVERYTHING JUST WORKED OUT WELL.

VERY GOOD INFORMATION OF THE HOUSE OG EVERYTHING INSIDE IS VERY TASTEFUL.

THE VIEW FROM THE TERRACE IS AMAZING AND THE CHURCH BELL KEEPS YOU IN TIME ²⁰⁰⁹.

WE ALSO MET THE WHITE AND GRAY KITTY AND HER KITTENS. BUT BECAUSE OF OUR DOG - AND IRISH SETTER (- AND A VERY FRIENDLY DOG), I WAS "ATTACKED" AND SHE MADE MY LEFT LEG WHIT SEVERAL SCRATCHES.

WE GOT SOME HELP FROM THE NEIGHBORS AND FOUND A WAY TO PAS THE CATS.

WE MIGHT COME BACK ONE DAY TO CONTINUE EXPLORING THIS PART OF PROVENCE.

A TAN WOULD BE NICE ⁸⁾

This is a lovely roomy house, better than most we have stayed in. Things to do:-

1. Cause the ardeche.
2. Try some Chateauneuf du Pape!
3. Try some Gigondas!
4. Try some Sablet Wine.

I recommend a meal at Du Vene
a L'assiette. Gigondas.

Places to visit:-

Vaison la romaine, L'Isle de Sorgue,
Aix-en-Provence, Pont du Gard,
Nimes, chateauneuf de Pape.

Disappointing! - orange + Arc de Triomphe covered in scaffolding, dog mess everywhere!!

Crammed in 21st in just one week.

Thank you, Pipps. Zé + Nigel.

25th July - 1st August 09

We have had a lovely time this week.

We went swimming in the pool at Vaison la Romaine, it's very nice but men remember to wear your speedos!

When we went to Orange we had lunch at a place called 'Les Bêtises

de Louise', it was very lovely and served delicious food from the local market.

Everyone in the village is nice and welcoming which makes this holiday seem even better.

Thank you

We have had a great fortnight here, very much enjoying the central location in Sablé and the beautiful landscapes of this region of France.

Le Fera Cheval has real character as a property, and it has been lovely to sit on the terrace overlooking the church grounds. It has also been so convenient to just pop out each morning to the local shops.

The annual Sablé fete was a nice surprise, with bands on each evening and much drinking and eating!

Have done so much in our two weeks here - a really successful holiday, and we'd certainly recommend the journey down by Eurostar from St. Pancras.

Two birthdays, many delicious meals and (as everyone else has noted) many excellent bottles of wine later, I am not ready to leave yet.

Loved the river walk at Toulouse (part near Veaux at the bridge) and a leisurely picnic in the shade.
